Client memo

1. The duration of the tax refund process mostly depends on the tax inspection work speed. However, our tax advisors will do everything to ensure that your tax refund reaches you as soon as possible.
2. After ordering the service, the tax consultants will contact you if additional information is needed or we would face any obstacles to successfully complete the process. However, if you are worried regarding how your tax refund process is going, please call or write. We will provide you with information about the progress of the process.
3. The amount of tax refund depends mainly on the income earned and the amount paid amount of income tax. Our consultants do their best to maximize your tax refund.
4. You can submit tax refund documents at our offices or remotely.
